

Emily McHugh

International Trade Consultant

Florida SBDC, IRSC Entrepreneurship Development Institute

772.460.8978

emily.mchugh@floridasbdc.org

---

Emily McHugh is an award-winning entrepreneur and International Trade Consultant at the Florida Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at IRSC. She is the author of "The Little Girl's Guide to Entrepreneurship - What I Know Now That I Sure Wish I Knew Then" and "The Super Charge Guide to Entrepreneurship".

Emily has lived in six countries and speaks three languages. Her international trade background spans working in trade finance and foreign exchange at the Banque Nationale de Paris (BNP) in New York and Mexico City, to starting her own company Casauri which included extensive travel to suppliers in Asia. She recently launched The Super Charge Club, an international online membership community for solopreneurs. Emily has her B.A. from Swarthmore College and her M.B.A. from Columbia University. Connect with Emily at www.EmilyMcHugh.com/Connect.

---